

INTIMATE VISIT OF MARRAKESH

The red city is the fourth largest city in the kingdom after Casablanca, Fez and Tangier.

Marrakech has always been renowned for the activity of its merchants and the skill of its

Craftsmen. It is still today the capital of southern Morocco, always at the crossroads of

Cultures, guardian of traditions and folklore, and rich in an architectural heritage that Makes it one of the top places of international tourism.

- Monuments and palaces: you will discover the majestic silhouette of the koutoubia (11th century) and the Bahia Palace (19th century).
- Jemaa el Fna square: the living heart of the city, known all over the world for its perpetual animation.
- Souks: Real economic lungs of the red city where the craftsmen still use in many fields the old techniques.
